4. Make all reasonable effort to find another place to hold the event if the original event location will be or is closed on the date of the event.
5. Take all reasonable precautions and actions to avoid loss, destruction, damage, accidents, liability and expense and to minimize any claim under the policy.
6. If you or the honoree sustain any injury, or on the commencement of any illness, which may cause the event to be cancelled, that person must seek medical care from a duly qualified medical doctor whose advice they shall follow. In such an event, you or the honoree must permit doctors of our choice to examine you or the honoree as often as we reasonably require.
7. Agree to:
 - a. be examined under oath;
 - b. produce members of your household or others for examination under oath to the extent that it is within your power to do so; and
 - c. keep accurate records containing all relevant information and particulars of the event to determine loss or damage and to produce such records as we may need to verify the claim and its amount and to permit copies of such records to be made, if needed.

We have no duty to provide coverage under this policy unless you comply with the above duties in full.

Section 8: General Conditions

Conformity to State Law. When any policy provision is in conflict with the applicable law of the state in which this policy is issued, the law of the state will apply.

False or Fraudulent Acts. Any fraud, intentional misstatement or concealment in the application, or in the making of a claim or otherwise howsoever, shall render this insurance void, and all claims hereunder shall be forfeited.

Payment of Claims. Payment of covered claims under the respective coverages will not be duplicated regardless of the number of insureds or honorees listed on the policy.

Suit Against Us. No action will be brought unless there has been compliance with the policy provisions and the action is started within 1 year after the alleged loss.

Our Right to Recover from Others. After we have made payment under this policy, we have the right to recover the payment from anyone who may be held responsible. You and anyone we indemnify must sign any papers and do whatever else is necessary to transfer this right to us. You and anyone we indemnify must do nothing to affect our rights.

Assignment. This policy may not be assigned in whole or in part without our consent.

Change or Waiver of Policy Provisions. If we make a change that broadens coverage under this edition of our policy without additional premium charge, the policy will automatically provide the broadened coverage when effective in your state. However, changes implemented through introduction of a subsequent edition of our policy forms will not be automatically provided. A waiver or any other change of a provision of this policy must be in writing by us to be valid.

Non-Cancellation. This insurance cannot be cancelled except for non-payment of premium. In the event of non-payment of premium, we may cancel this insurance upon fifteen (15) days written notice to you by certified or registered mail at the mailing address shown in the declarations page.

Currency. Unless otherwise agreed to by us in writing, premiums and losses due hereunder shall be paid in United States Dollars at the rates of exchange ruling when and where the loss occurs.

Abandonment. There shall be no abandonment of property or goods to us.

Appraisal. If you and we fail to agree on the amount of the loss, either you or we can demand that the amount of the loss be set by appraisal. If either you or we make a written demand for appraisal, each party will select a competent, independent appraiser and notify the other party of the appraiser's identity within twenty (20) days of receipt of the written demand. The two appraisers will then select a competent, impartial umpire. If the two appraisers are unable to agree upon an umpire within fifteen (15) days, you or we can ask a judge of a court of record in the state of your residence to select an umpire. The appraisers will then set the amount of the loss. If the appraisers submit a written report of an agreement to us, the amount agreed upon will be the amount of the loss. If the appraisers fail to agree within a reasonable time, they will submit their difference to the umpire. Written agreement signed by any two of these three will set the amount of the loss. The party selecting that appraiser will pay each appraiser. Other expenses and the compensation of the umpire will be paid equally by you and us. Our request for an appraisal or examination will not waive any of our rights.

This policy is signed at the Home Office of the company by its secretary and president.
